DISCUSSION: The employment-based immigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, Nebraska Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The petitioner is in the entertainment business. It seeks to employ the beneficiary permanently in the United States as a senior business systems analyst. As required by statute, the petition is accompanied by a Form ETA 9089, Application for Permanent Employment Certification, approved by the United States Department of Labor (DOL). The director determined that the petitioner had not established that the beneficiary had the necessary 60 months of work experience as required by the Form ETA 9089. The director denied the petition accordingly.

On appeal, counsel states that the director "incorrectly determined the Beneficiary failed to meet the minimum requirements as required by the [Form ETA 9089]." However, the petitioner failed to specifically address the director's analysis of his evidence, and did not furnish any additional evidence. Counsel indicated on the Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal or Motion, that a brief and/or additional evidence would be submitted to the AAO within 30 days. However, no such brief or evidence has been received by the AAO. The regulation at 8 CFR §§ 103.3(a)(2)(vii) and (viii) states that an affected party may make a written request to the AAO for additional time to submit a brief and that, if the AAO grants the affected additional time, it may submit the brief directly to the AAO.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v), any appeal that fails to specifically identify any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact will be summarily dismissed.

A review of the decision reveals that the director accurately set forth a legitimate basis for denial of the petition. On appeal, the petitioner has not presented additional evidence. Nor has the petitioner specifically addressed the basis for denial. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
